LATER...
Let His Majesty go first!

Makes sense for us to go one by one. I don't think this damaged clown kart can take much more weight.

...

Oh! The doors open automatically at the presence of the Kart! How convinient for us!

LOOK OUT!

I noticed the clown kart was giving away, so I had to push you out of the way of the closing gate.

NO, WAIT! I CAN'T LEAVE THEM BEHIND!

If we find your tool box AND your brother, do you think you two can help me help them?

EH? Uhhhh...errmmm...suuure?
